This report summarizes the result of a review of the 41 sections and 2 appendices under which the Board of Technical Registration operates. Pursuant to A.A.C. R1-6-301(A), the following concise analysis is submitted for Council consideration:

1. General Statute Authorizing the Rules:

4. Consistency of the Rules With State and Federal Statutes and Rules, and a Listing of the Statutes or Rules Used in Determining the Consistency:

There are no directly applicable federal statutes or rules with which the Board's rules must be consistent. To the extent necessary, Board rules are consistent with those of the Office of the Secretary of State. All of the rules have previously been determined to be consistent with the following state statutes that are applicable to actions taken and work conducted by the Board. There are, however, new statutes and conditions applicable to the regulation of the alarm industry that will eventually impact consistency that the Board has considered in its review, as well as rulemaking requirements under A.R.S. § 41-1008 that may impact the Board.

A.R.S. § 41-1001, et seq., the Arizona Administrative Procedure Act;
A.R.S. § 41-1092, et seq., Uniform Administrative Hearing Procedures;
A.R.S. § 38-431, et seq., commonly known as "The Open Meeting Law;"

7. Written Criticisms:

The Board has not received any written criticisms of these rules during the last five years.

8. Economic, Small Business, and Consumer Impact:

In order to assess the economic impact of the Board rules, it is important to understand what the Board does and the nature of its operations. The Board is charged with protecting the health, safety and welfare of the public. The Board examines, registers, and issues licenses to applicants for certain occupations and professions. It charges application fees to support these functions. Many of these fees are paid by the applicants' employers. The Board's licensing fees are appreciably lower than those charged to applicants for registration by other state regulatory boards. The Board's licensing and registration requirements carry no appreciable economic impact on consumers, small business, or the economy.

The Board amended 10 rules in 2012-2013. None of those rule changes had a noticeable economic impact on the public. No other state government agencies incurred any substantial economic impact as a result of any rulemakings.

9. The following rules impose the least burden and costs to persons regulated by the rule, including paperwork and other compliance costs necessary to achieve the underlying regulatory objective. The probable benefits of these rules also outweigh the probable costs of the rules.

11. In the analysis of the rules, the Board found that there are not directly applicable federal laws. Therefore, the Board finds that the rules are not more stringent than any corresponding federal law.
12. In the analysis of the rules, the Board found that registration reasonably falls under the definition of general permit under A.R.S. 41 § 1001(10) and that all rules are in compliance with A.R.S. § 32-1037.
13. The agency completed the course of action indicated in the agency’s previous five-year review for R4-30-122, R4-30-212, R4-30-214, R4-30-301 and R4-30-305.
14. Proposed Course of Action:

The Board plans amend R4-30-106, R4-30-107, R4-30-203, R4-30-209 and R4-30-301 of its 41 rules sections and two appendices. See the analysis of individual rules section of this report, below, for a discussion of specific changes that are proposed.

Analysis of Individual Rules

R4-30-101 Definitions

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. § 32-106(A)(1)
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to provide definitions for terms that are used throughout the Board’s rules.
3. Effectiveness: Currently, the rule does not provide the Board with a clear way to discipline a licensee or deny an applicant for registration who has been convicted of sexually related offenses as defined in A.R.S. § 13-1401et seq. or substance abuse/chemical dependency related crimes as defined in A.R.S. § 13-3401, or other crimes that take place outside of a work site without finding that the crime is reasonably related to the profession. Such an amendment would better protect the public from potentially dangerous licensees.
14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule.

R4-30-102 Home Inspections Definitions

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. §§ 32-106(A)(1),(9), 32-111(D).
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to provide definitions for terms that are used throughout the Board's rules related to home inspectors.
14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule.

R4-30-103 Drug Laboratory Site Remediation Definitions

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. §§ 32-106(A)(1),(9), and 32-112(D)
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to provide definitions for terms that are used throughout the Board's rules related to drug laboratory site remediation.
14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule. It was amended in 2013.

R4-30-106 Fees

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. § 32-124, A.R.S. § 32-122.05 and A.R.S. § 32-122.06
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth all the fees the Board charges that have to be established by rule.
3. Effectiveness: The fees that the Board currently imposes are no longer effective because they no longer cover the cost of the services provided.
4. Consistency: Although the Board is exempt from the requirements of A.R.S. Title 41 Chapter 6 in establishing a schedule for certain fees under A.R.S. § 32-124, A.R.S. § 41-1008 may require the Board to reflect the exempt fees in rule within two years. The rule amendment would be required to be consistent with A.R.S. § 41-1008.
14. Proposed course of action: If the Board retains jurisdiction over the alarm industry, it plans to amend this rule to include the Alarm Industry fees for certification and renewal, and to update fees for services that cost the Board more to produce than is currently charged to those requesting those services. The estimated submission of the final rulemaking package is July of 2017, contingent on regulation of the alarm industry remaining with the Board.
8. Economic Impact: Fees will only be increased proportionally to more accurately account for and recoup the Board's costs for the services it offers to the public. It is not expected to have any negative impact upon the public or the licensed populations that the Board serves.

R4-30-107 Registration and Certification Expiration Dates

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. §§ 32-123, 32-127, 32-122.05 and 32-122.06.
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the annual and triennial registration expiration dates for registrants.
6. Clarity, Conciseness and Understandability: The Board was given authority to regulate the alarm industry effective in 2013. Adding language to the rule explaining the two year expiration of alarm agent certifications and firm certifications, and the one year requirement that alarm agents and controlling persons must submit fingerprints for criminal background will help to notify the licensed population and assist them with conforming to statutory licensing requirements.
14. Proposed course of action: The Board plans to amend this rule to account for the expiration of alarm industry certifications if it retains jurisdiction over the industry. The estimated submission of the final rulemaking package is July of 2017, contingent on regulation of the alarm industry remaining with the Board.
8. Economic Impact: There is no economic impact anticipated for the alarm industry applicants.

R4-30-120 Complaint Review Process

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. §§ 32-128(C),(D), and (E)
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the Board's complaint review process.
14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule.

R4-30-121 Investigation of Violations

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. §§ 32-128 and 32-129
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the Board's investigative powers and explain the confidential nature of the investigations.
14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule.

2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the requirements for the Board to issue a subpoena.

14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule. It was amended in 2013.

2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the Board's informal compliance procedures, i.e. the settlement process.

14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule.

R4-30-126 Service of Board Decisions; Rehearing of Board Decisions

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. § 32-106(A)(5)

2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the parameters of the Board's rehearing process and the conditions under which a request for a rehearing or review of the Board's decisions may be granted.

14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule.

R4-30-201 Registration as an Architect, Assayer, Engineer, Geologist, Landscape Architect or Land Surveyor

2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the requirements for in-training designation.

14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule.

R4-30-202.01 Remediation Specialist Certification

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. § 32-131
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the requirements for certification as a drug laboratory remediation specialist.
14. Proposed course of action: The Board has no plans to amend this rule.

R4-30-203 Waiver of Examination

1. Authorization: Specific authority: A.R.S. § 32-126
2. Objective of the rule: The objective of this rule is to set forth the conditions under which the Board may waive the professional examination and the in-training examinations. The rule supplements the statute by providing applicants with specific requirements needed to verify their licensing information. As an example, waiver of examination may be contingent not only on whether the applicant has passed a prior examination, but also on the competencies demonstrated by the examination.
6. Clarity, Conciseness and Understandability: Although the rule is reasonably clear, applicants who are registered in other jurisdictions and who wish to seek a waiver of examination requirements would benefit from additional detail to assist in the application process, such as clarification of current examination requirements.
14. Proposed course of action: The Board plans to amend this rule to more clearly explain how candidates for registration may qualify for a waiver of required examinations. The estimated submission of the final rulemaking package is July of 2017.
8. Economic Impact: The Board does not anticipate and economic impact on applicants or the Board.

R4-30-204 Examinations
